

COURSE DESCRIPTION
Type of study	full-time 1st degree (BSc)			Field of study	Landscape Architecture
Specialization	Green Areas Management
Code	Course name (acc. to curricula of study)				ECTS point
AK 7040	Graduate seminar				8
Unit running the course					Semester
Dep. of Environmental Protection and Management					VII
Number of hours in semester	L – 0	A – 0	Lb – 0	Ws – 0	D – 0	S – 30
Learning outcomes Knowledge on standards, research, conceptual and design studies in the landscape architecture, their content and layout. Methods of use of sources. Ways of presenting ideas and projects. Skills of proper use of sources, use of a standard design layout and its presentation.
Prerequisites: Design in landscape architecture, engineering graphics and application of computer methods
Frame programme 1. Principles of proper selection and citation of sources. Compilation of bibliography. 2. The standard layout of the research, conceptual and design studies. Division the study into parts. The content of individual chapters. Style and format of the text. 3. Discussion on general issues of ongoing studies. 4. Analysis and discussion of specific ideas and solutions across the studies. 5. Methods for visual presentation of the studies.
Form of lecture assessment Kolloquium <input type="checkbox"/> Final test <input type="checkbox"/> Written exam <input type="checkbox"/> Oral exam <input type="checkbox"/> Other [X]
References: 1. Czachorowski S. 2005. Jak napisać pracę magisterską [in Polish] 2. 3. 4. 5. 6. 7. 8.
The content was worked out by: Dr. Dan Wołkowycki					Date: 2011-11-30
Supervisor of unit (department): Dr. hab. Piotr Banaszuk						