

Rules for passing classes

Application of computer systems in env. eng. (EEM11009)

The course ends with a final grade.

The assessment depends on the correctness of the numerical model of the water distribution system and the preparation of the report.

Correctly completed project – grade 5

Errors in calculations – grade 4

A large number of errors in calculations – grade 3

Failure to complete the project within the applicable deadline – grade 2